

HIS KINGDOM COME

“Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.’

“Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
10 your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
11 Give us today our daily bread.
12 And forgive us our debts,
as we also have forgiven our debtors.
13 And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from the evil one.’

Jesus teaches us to pray — Your Kingdom Come, Your Will Be Done On Earth as it is in Heaven.

What is he asking? What does God’s Kingdom look like? What does it mean for us? The sermon on the Mount, Matthew 5-7, actually gives a picture of what God’s Kingdom looks like — and not what it looks like with your eyes, with buildings, or streets of gold, but what it’s like if you know it.

You’ll know God’s Kingdom when you experience it.

MATTHEW 6:19 “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal.²⁰ But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal.²¹ For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

And Matthew 5-7 reflects the Lord’s Prayer — that the prayer itself demonstrates. It talks about not worrying, about what righteousness looks like — it’s not outward, but directed towards God. God knows. And I do it, for him. There’s a real sense, that the kingdom of God

And so, the first question that we need to ask is:

What are the treasures in heaven? Indestructible. Unable to be stolen or lost?

1. Christ — is our greatest treasure. How can Christ be a treasure.

Can Jesus be precious to you? Baptisms in Mandarin congregation. But what about for us, growing up in Christian families. How do we keep Jesus precious to us.

Relationally, it’s like marriage — We tend to think marriage is forever. The reality is, it’s not. It’s not guaranteed to last. There’s no magic in the vow, that means you’ll always be together. In reality, marriage is not a series of compromises — but it’s a commitment to one another. If you want to strengthen your marriage, you have to treasure one another. You have to believe that they are still precious to you. And precious to others.

And with Christ it’s the same — is Jesus still precious to you? Why not? How do you recapture that flame? 1) Hear Jesus- You are still precious to Him. **

Where you treasure is, your heart will be also.

WHAT'S TREASURES IN HEAVEN?

For a lot of us, we find ourselves caught in a mundane cycle of life. A real repetitiveness in it can become quite dull.
