

Hebrews

CHAPTERS ONE & TWO

Christ is greater than any angel, priest, or old covenant institution; thus each reader, rather than leaving such a great salvation, is summoned to hold on by faith to the true rest found in Christ and to encourage others in the church to persevere.

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.

He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs.

5 For to which of the angels did God ever say,

“You are my Son,
today I have begotten you”?

Or again,

“I will be to him a father,
and he shall be to me a son”?

6 And again, when he brings the firstborn into the world, he says,

“Let all God's angels worship him.”

7 Of the angels he says,

*“He makes his angels winds,
and his ministers a flame of fire.”*

8 But of the Son he says,

“Your throne, O God, is for ever and ever,
the sceptre of uprightness is the sceptre of your kingdom.

9 You have loved righteousness and hated wickedness;
therefore God, your God, has anointed you
with the oil of gladness beyond your companions.”

10 And,

“You, Lord, laid the foundation of the earth in the beginning,
and the heavens are the work of your hands;

11 they will perish, but you remain;

see, angels were these supernatural beings, they were mystified more, there was more intrigue around them. they were the miraculous.

if you're worshipping the miraculous you've got it wrong.

if you're

you've got it
wrong.

if you're worshipping the theories you've got it wrong.

when i used to love going to church, more than i loved Jesus.

i loved the idea of God more than I loved actually engaging with him.

It's a custom or a ritual. But you've got to ask yourself, Jesus — who are you in my life, what is my actual relationship with you like —

We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away. For since the message spoken through angels was binding, and every violation and disobedience received its just punishment, how shall we escape if we ignore so great a salvation? This salvation, which was first announced by the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard him. God also testified to it by signs, wonders and various miracles, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit distributed according to his will.

We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard, so that we do not drift away. 2 For since the message spoken through angels was binding, and every violation and disobedience received its just punishment, 3 how shall we escape if we ignore so great a salvation? All of those things are pointing to Jesus.

Angels were messengers of God and Jesus himself was greater.

Now it was not to angels that God subjected the world to come, of which we are speaking. 6 It has been testified somewhere,

“What is man, that you are mindful of him,
or the son of man, that you care for him?

7 You made him for a little while lower than the angels;
you have crowned him with glory and honour,[a]

8 putting everything in subjection under his feet.”

Now in putting everything in subjection to him, he left nothing outside his control. At present, we do not yet see everything in subjection to him. 9 But we see him who for a little while was made lower than the angels, namely Jesus, crowned with glory and honour because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone.

HEBREWS 2:9

In bringing many sons and daughters to glory, it was fitting that God, for whom and through whom everything exists, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through what he suffered. Both the one who makes people holy and those who are made holy are of the same family. So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters.

So Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters. 12 He says,

Not Ashamed of You.
Not Ashamed of You.

'I will declare your name to my brothers and sisters;
in the assembly I will sing your praises.'^[h]

13 And again,

'I will put my trust in him.'^[i]
And again he says,

'Here am I, and the children God has given me.'^[j]

if Christ gives us holiness
why do you
keep rejecting
it?

Jesus
*victorious

if Christ gives us holiness, why do you keep rejecting it?

if Christ
is not ashamed
of you,
why are you
ashamed of
him?

victorious

I used to be ashamed of my parents. Because of their english.
because of their background.

And i used to think my parents were ashamed of me — not smart enough.

Jesus
came to save
humanity

14 Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. 16 For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham. 17 Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18 For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

A yellow circle is centered on a white background. Inside the circle, the text "Jesus chose to become human so he could redeem us" is written in a bold, black, serif font. The text is arranged in four lines, centered horizontally.

For because he himself has suffered
when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

HEBREWS 2:18

17 Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18 For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

*understands &
has overcome
temptation*
why don't you
ask him for help?

Jesus
*overcomes

This is the biggest part — when you understand that Jesus is real and true — and you understand salvation — that you are free and welcomed, it means you're not trying to achieve, but you have the opportunity to ask him for help.
