

KINGDOM VISION

2019-2020

Boris Johnson, Supreme Court's Ruling on Proroguing Parliament by Boris Johnson, and then Parliament's return and Boris Johnson's response.

Donald Trump's request to Ukrainian government to investigate political opponent and by threatening to remove financial support if rejected.

It's led to the US government initiating a formal impeachment inquiry.

His response has been his usual pattern of :

Essentially i have done that, but i'm allowed to, and look at the other guy.

UN Climate Summit

For more than 30 years, the science has been crystal clear. How dare you continue to look away and come here saying that you're doing enough, when the politics and solutions needed are still nowhere in sight.

"You say you hear us and that you understand the urgency. But no matter how sad and angry I am, I do not want to believe that. Because if you really understood the situation and still kept on failing to act, then you would be evil. And that I refuse to believe.

The US government is looking to hold Donald Trump, accountable to his role as president, not as dictator.

Boris Johnson is being held accountable by the parliament and the supreme court to uphold the democratic process of debate and Greta Thunberg is holding the world leaders responsible for their response on Climate Change.

In each of these cases, there's this appeal that the authorities will hold them accountable for their actions. Each one makes an appeal. And on the flip side, we all hope for accountability as well.

'Be dressed ready for service and keep your lamps burning, like servants waiting for their master to return from a wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him. It will be good for those servants whose master finds them watching when he comes.

Luke 12:35-40

'Be dressed ready for service and keep your lamps burning, like servants waiting for their master to return from a wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him. It will be good for those servants whose master finds them watching when he comes.

Truly I tell you, he will dress himself to serve, will make them recline at the table and will come and wait on them. It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, even if he comes in the middle of the night or towards daybreak.

Luke 12:35-40

Truly I tell you, he will dress himself to serve, will make them recline at the table and will come and wait on them. It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, even if he comes in the middle of the night or towards daybreak. But understand this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.'

But understand this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into.

What have you been up to?
Are you ready to give account?

Peter asked, 'Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everyone?'

Luke 12:41

Peter asked, 'Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everyone?'

He's trying too see if he's going to be held more accountable. is this about him, or is this about others. It's almost like asking, is this going to be on the exam? Is this a "general" parable, or is this specific.

The Lord answered, 'Who then is the faithful and wise manager, whom the master puts in charge of his servants to give them their food allowance at the proper time? It will be good for that servant whom the master finds doing so when he returns. Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.'

Luke 12:42-48

Truly I tell you, he will dress himself to serve, will make them recline at the table and will come and wait on them. It will be good for those servants whose master finds them ready, even if he comes in the middle of the night or towards daybreak. But understand this: if the owner of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have let his house be broken into. What's a faithful and wise manager? Who's been faithful and wise with their lives. Have you stewarded

Have you been faithful with what you've been given?

What have you been up to?
Are you ready to give account?

But suppose the servant says to himself, “My master is taking a long time in coming,” and he then begins to beat the other servants, both men and women, and to eat and drink and get drunk. The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of. He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the unbelievers.

Be very careful, then, how you live—not as unwise but as wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is. Do not get drunk on wine, which leads to debauchery. Instead, be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another with psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit. Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord, always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 5:15-20

'The servant who knows the master's will and does not get ready or does not do what the master wants will be beaten with many blows. But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows.'

Luke 12:42-48

'The servant who knows the master's will and does not get ready or does not do what the master wants will be beaten with many blows. But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows.'

From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.

Luke 12:42-48

From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.

'The servant who knows the master's will and does not get ready or does not do what the master wants will be beaten with many blows. But the one who does not know and does things deserving punishment will be beaten with few blows.

Things are good now, and you can say you're comfortable, but you better be learning. I've sat down and told both my kids, that one of the things is, i'm not going to be here on earth forever, and the learning that they do in school, is preparing for when I'm gone in the future, or the challenges ahead.

You're accountable for how you've spent your life.

What have you been up to?
Are you ready to give account?

Have you been wasting it away, drunk,
whilst the world burns around you?
Do you even care? When I listened to Greta Thunberg, there's this passionate conviction, that this trouble or hardship may be coming.

You also must be ready,
because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.'

Genesis 41

Genesis 41 The king of Egypt has this dream. And God had given Joseph the gift of interpreting and explaining dreams. So he asks

Seven fat cows, and then seven thin cows came and ate them up.

Genesis 41:17

seven fat cows

eaten by seven lean cows

seven years of plenty, then seven years of famine, all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, the famine will consume the land and the plenty will be unknown in the land by reason of the famine that will follow, for it will be very severe.
